Asst. Director for Policy Coordination

Acting Executive

Military Personnel Authorizations for OPC

Reference: Memo from ADPC on above subject dtd 1 September 1950 (ER 1-2368)

1. Request contained in reference memorandum has been discussed in detail between the Personnel Director and representatives of your Office, as a result of which the Department of Defense has been requested to eliminate military personnel ceilings now governing the allocation of military personnel to CIA.

2. The reaction of the Department of Defense to our request has been generally favorable, and notification of final decision is expected in the near future. Meanwhile continual contact with the appropriate Department of Defense officials is being maintained to expedite final action as much as possible. You will be informed immediately upon receipt of this decision.
